THIS ITEM'S SPECIFICS: 1st U.S. edition/1st printing, Grove Press, 1967. SIGNED by the author on the title page (just his name, no inscription).

Straight, clean, tight book with no soiling and no previous ownership markings with just a slight curl (though no softness) to the cloth at the head of the spine, in a price intact, clean, crisp and unyellowed dustjacket with 2 extremely tiny surface rubs to fold ends and a straightened out, very small fold line to upper front flap corner, but otherwise without fault.

Because of censorship issues at that time in the U.S., this book was originally published by Olympia Press in Paris as a softcover in 1962. This is the 1st U.S. edition, stated 'First Printing' on the copyright page.

Second book in the Nova trilogy. Burroughs confronts us with our contemporary society under the cover of the "Nova Mob" and their attempt to gain complete control of communications.

PICTURES/DESCRIPTIONS: In our auctions, all descriptions and pictures are of the actual book or item being auctioned; we do not use stock descriptions or photos. We will always describe the exact book or item being auctioned for you in words and pictures. Many of our pictures may contain our A&A logo; this is on the scan/picture only--nothing is on the item itself. We host our own pictures so if one doesn't load, just refresh your screen.

SIGNATURES: We guarantee the authenticity of all signed material that we sell; we have sold signed books and other signed materials for 15 years and our reputation is much too important to us to deal in questionable items.

PAYMENT: Payment may be made via Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover or PayPal. PayPal is available via eBay or to us at aaabooks@aaabooks.com. If you wish a PayPal invoice and one is not sent to you automatically by eBay, please let us know. Ignore any option to pay by check or money order that may be shown on your payment notice from eBay; we no longer offer such payment options on our eBay listings. Please plan to pay within 48 hours of an auction closing, unless you have made previous alternative payment arrangements with us. If you have questions or concerns about this, please contact us by email at aaabooks@aaabooks.com or through eBay. We will answer you promptly.
